Business Meeting

Old Business

- Historic Preservation Committee (Toni) – Rockwood Historical District.
 - The Cliff-Cannon process took two years.
 - Prevents full tear downs.
 - New construction has to be compatible with neighbors (non-conflicting).
 - Need to retain an architectural historian
 - This could cost $20-30K.
 - A Cannon Hill resident did all the work for free.
 - There are 279 houses in the National Historic District.
 - The national recognition does not prevent anything.
 - The easiest approach would be for the local historic district to be identical to the national historic district.
 - All these assessments have been completed.
 - Bill asked if we could do this in phases?
 - For example, start with the homes in the existing National Historic District, then incorporate additional homes as a second step.
 - The pond area north of East 27th Avenue is now a preserved wetland.
 - Sabrina mentioned that Spokane Preservation Advocates offers grants.
 - Bill offered to send an email to Rockwood residents to gauge interest in the project.

New Business

 - We will be electing vice chair, treasurer and 2-3 Board positions.
- 2026 Community Engagement Grant (Bil)
